New York, April 5,-The consistent strength of railway shares and irregustrength of railway shares and irregu-larity of prominent specialties fur-nished the contrasting features of to-day's languid market. Munitions, Mexicans, motors, oils and shipping shares were higher by one to two points in the first hour, with greater gains in U. S. Industrial Alcohol and Cuban American Sugar. Much of this ground was lost later when rails offered almost the only re-

Absolutely Removes Indigestion. One package proves it. 25cat all druggists. KEEPING UP THE PACE. Wagner, Lajole, Plank and Brown Still Hard to Beat.

Youth will be served in baseball, they say. Possibly it will. But youth is supposed to end long before a man is 40. And we call your attention to four gentlemen who possibly will command about as much attention, taking the season all the way through, as any other quartette in major league ball, each of whom has passed the twoscore mark, or will do so some time during this season. this season.

this season.

They are Hans Wagner, captain of the Pittsburgh team, so decrepit that he can earn only $10,000 this season; Nap Lajole of the Athletics, whose physical weakness limits him to a $9,000 stipend; Mordecal Brown, who will the company the company of t ooo stipend; Mordecai Brown, who will stage a comeback with the Cubs, approximate salary not known; Eddle Plank, star hurler of the Federal league last scason and in league baseball for a longer time. He will get considerably more than $5,000.

Wagner, of course, is the daddy of them all, because he's been in big league baseball for a longer time. He was said to be slipping some last scason, but still he was good enough to hold his job and to assure himself of the same position in 1916. He and Lajoie are the pair most easily to be compared. Both are infielders and the two for a number of years were baseball's greatest rivals. Larry was born ball's greatest rivals. Larry was born in 1875, and only Wagner has had more baseball experience. You come to a couple of pitchers who have done much to make baseball history when you take up the cases of Plank and Brown. The last named is the youngster of the quartette, having been born in 1876. Plank claims 1875 as his birth year.

Plank claims 1875 as his birth year. There is a suspicion that he is cheating, but no proof.

Old-timers seem to be coming into fashion again, because the minors do not produce enough good new material. At the New York meeting it was reported that Pat Moran, manager of the Philadelphia champions, had signed Josh Devore and had bought Dave Shean. The latter has been out of the Shean. The latter has been out of the majors for three or four years, and Devore last season managed a class D club because no one between the big-gest and littlest shows cared for him Just a little before that Bill Dono-van signed Herman Schaefer as as-Boston 00 3 0 0 1 0 0 1—5 Baltimore 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 sistant coach and utility man. Another instance of the fact that Another instance of the fact that youth isn't necessarily going to be served is Sam Crawford. This will be his 14th season with the Detroit club. And he played with Cincinnati before going there. There's no great expectancy that any youngster will take Sam's job from him. He wouldn't have to worry, anyway, as his contract has two years to run and will be carried two years to run and will be carried out to the letter. No, youth isn't al-ways served. Any time a club can get ways served. Any time a club can get a real ball player it's willing to stick to him to the last minute and to reward him for his efforts. Cy Young was a striking illustration of the way that veterans of proved class are regarded. Young was past 40 years when Cleveland gave $12,000 and two players for him. The Ohio ownership knew what Cy could do, and that he would always be ready to do it. He didn't always be ready to do it. He didn't ast long, but while he did last he es-ablished a mark for them all to shoot

GOVERNMENT IN PANAMA United States Asked to Supervise

Presidential Elections. Panama, April 5. - Both political parties opposed to the present government in Panama having asked for the good offices of the United States in superivising the presidential elections here in July, it now remains for Pres-ident Porrus to indicate what position his government will take regarding su-pervision.

President Porras continues to maintain a non-committal attitude toward American supervision, but privately he has let it be known that he is op-posed to any interference by the United States, stating that the police power of the Republic is ample to as-sure both a peaceful, honest and fair election. It is understood that he has already given orders that no intimida-tion shall be practiced in the prepara-tion of the voters' lists and that every male citizen of legal age shall given an oportunity to register.

Disorders are sircady frequently reported from various parts of the country. The equesition press reports these fully with the purpose, it is ciaimed, to make it apsar that American intervention is absolutely necessary to preserve the peace and independence of the Republic.

No Pipe Dream.

The rumor that President Wilson was contemplating resigning his office was, of course, about These are many good reasons, not the least of them being Vice President Marshall.—Springfield Union.

Seeing Things. "Senator Lodge sees phantom ravy of 26 battleships." That is, our bat-tleships. The enemy's battleships are always real, and travel at twice their normal speed.—New York Post.

Manchester—The high price of gas-line may drive the jitney out of bus-ness, so far as competition with the rolley cars is concerned.
